Birthcare of Medina County

June 2017

Providing for little ones what love cannot buy since 1976

We Honor Volunteer of the Year Terri Clark

We are pleased to honor a sweet volunteer who is very dedicated, volunteering month after month, year after year, loyally serving countless shifts for 12 years. We are excited to honor Terri Clark as our 2017 Volunteer of the Year!

Terri joined Birthcare in April 2005 after being trained by past director Marita Tulisaiak. She believes all babies should have the necessities of formula, baby food, diapers and clothing. Terri said "I am very proud to be a small part of an organization that cares and reaches out to help the community with these basic needs."

Terri is also an active volunteer at Kitten Crazy, a no kill cat shelter, and B.A.S.I.C. Food Pantry which works in partnership with her church, Remsen Christian Church.

A widow for two years, Terri has two adult children, six grandchildren and a 14-year old cat, Kiki. She retired from Southwest General Health Center where she worked for 27 years as a pharmacy technician.

Thank You, Volunteers!

We love to recognize our dedicated volunteers who compassionately serve our clients. In April volunteers received a note of thanks, forget me not seeds and a mini-canvas bag planter.

Special Thanks To....

620 Corporation, our gracious landlord since June 2003.

Ed Bugner, CPA, for preparing our annual financial statements, reviewing our Form 990 and monthly reports and answering financial questions as our reliable accountant for 33 years.

Karyn Wolfe, owner of The Gingerbread House, deserves praise for the many clothing donations she channeled to Birthcare over the years. She closed her business in May.

Strong Community Support

St. Francis Xavier Parish Day of Caring yielded 30 hand-tied fleece toddler blankets. At least 30 parishioners of all ages brought their own material and tied the blankets in two three-hour sessions May 27. Parishioners also dropped off much needed baby and toddler clothing.

Alex Stankard, Maeve Wilson and Alex Dillon are tying a blanket at St. Francis Xavier's Day of Caring.

Our gratitude to Westfield Insurance for their "Spring Cleaning Donation Drive" that collected 127 items of clothing for Birthcare in March and April. Community Investment Manager Andrea Allamong delivered the items.

Lisa Pflaum, of Lisa Pflaum Photography dropped off a great assortment of items collected by Working Women Connection at their March meeting.

Other welcome donations came from:

St. Francis Xavier St. Vincent de Paul, wipes, soap, lotion, cups, Q-tips

St. Francis Xavier School Gr. 5, books
Medina Rec Center, 9 blankets, hats, booties

Seville Methodist Church, books collected for a Christmas project

Claggett Middle School, a service group made 5 fleece blankets

Battered Women's Shelter, blankets and socks

Tower Tootsies, handmade blankets

Guilford Go-fers 4H Club, homemade playdough, bookmarks and Fun Pads

Western Reserve Masonic Community, Knitting Group, hats, blankets, booties

Rainbow Trail of Kings Daughters & Sons, formula, diapers, food, blankets

Medina Pediatrics, infant formula

Medina Noon Kiwanis, diapers, wipes, wash, lotion, clothing

Medina Personal Care Pantry, diapers, wipes

Traci Winkler's Medina HS language arts classes, lots of clothing and onesies

New Horizons Church, Homerville, diapers, formula, wipes

Client Stats - Five Months

In five months of 2017, we served 176 clients during 422 visits. That is a 27% drop in clients and a 20% drop in office visits compared to this time last year. In five months, we have met:

- 326 requests for clothing
- 97 requests for formula
- 64 requests for baby food
- 518 requests for diapers
- 3 requests for car seats

6 requests for cribs
7 requests for mattresses

Volunteer Notes

Volunteer Judy Sack staffed our table at Family-A-Fair in April and supervised the kid craft and raffle of a rocking horse (donated by a friend of Birthcare). Sister Sandy Bevec, assisted Barb and Diane with seasonal bin change in April and now keeps up with packaging diapers in pre-counted amounts.

Happy graduation to teen volunteers: Ethan Bauer (to attend U. of Dayton), Kathryn Brahler (to attend The Ohio State U.), Mason Kleinhenz (to attend U. of Dayton), Tyler Peters (to attend The Ohio State U.) and Zachary Yurich (to attend U. of Dayton). We thank them for the untold hours given to serve our clients, their reliability, and mature handling of every task tackled!
